1.1. 26 Days Kalimantan – Indonesia Borneo
Package Code: 26KIB

Starting Point: Pontianak Airport
Ending Point: Pangkalan Bun Airport

Day 01: ARRIVAL IN PONTIANAK (D)
Meet and greet at the airport arrival hall and transfer to your accommodation. Free at your own leisure.

In the afternoon, Explore the riverbank area of Pontianak using a wooden boat to observe the daily life of the local people or go for a sightseeing trip to Pontianak harbor, Betung Permai water village, and the huge Kapuas Bridge.

Day 02: PONTIANAK – SINTANG (B,L,D)
Breakfast will be at your accommodation. After breakfast, we will leave for Sintang by public land transportation. This journey will take an approximately 8 hours. Free at your own leisure.

Day 03: SINTANG – PUTUSSIBAU (B,L,D)
Proceed to Putussibau by public land transportation for about 8 hours passing the beautiful view of Mount Kelam on the roadside. Upon arrival at Putussibau, transfer to your hotel for overnight. Free at your own leisure.

Day 04: PUTUSSIBAU – BONGAN RIVER (B,L,D)
Proceed to the headwater of the Kapuas River to reach Bongan River by long boat with all necessary supplies. The boat is about 1 ½ - 2 meters wide and 6-8 meters long occupies for 4-5 passengers with no roof, so it will be hot and noisy. On the way, we may stop at the Dayak village to see the longhouse. In certain places we have to go down to the river to pull and push the boat as the level of the water in the dry season is too shallow. Here you will experience how the boatman and what we call “the Stone Man” knows exactly where the rock is and how to get away from the rapids. If the rapid is too extreme, we have to walk along the rock or villager farmlands at the riverside and the boat will pick us up in certain place. It's tough here.

Lunch will be served en route, dinner and overnight on bivouac/tent.

Day 05: BONGAN RIVER – TANJUNG LOKANG (B,L,D)
After breakfast, we will continue our journey that is more challenging. We will go down, pull and push the boat, walk on the rock or villager farmlands at riverside while the boat passes the rapids, all of these can give you an unforgettable experience. On the way, you will see the tropical rainforest of Kalimantan, villager farmlands, hills, and temporary huts till you reach Tanjung Lokang. It is a remote village, inhabited by Punan Bongan Dayak people, located on the area of Betung Kerihun National Park. If you are a handicraft collector you may find some rattan basket weaving, traditional Dayak machete, blow pipe gun, palm leaves rounded hat, and many more.

Lunch will be served en route, dinner and overnight on local house.

Day 06: TANJUNG LOKANG – SUNGAI BULIT (B,L,D)
We will start the day by trekking across villager farmland and secondary rainforest. The first 2 hours we will be hiking up the hill then proceed for another hike about 2 ½ hours passing the jungle and dry small river. After lunch en route close to the riverside, the trek will be up and down again, crossing a small shallow river, and Nyinyit Cave where the local people collect the swift nest that cost so expensive and very good to support their life inside the cave. Before dark, we will set a campsite for dinner and overnight.

Day 07: SUNGAI BULIT – SUNGAI BONGAN (B,L,D)
After breakfast, we will cross rivers, up and down passing the jungle while exploring exotic flora and fauna of Borneo. After lunch at riverside, we will then cross jungle, rivers, cave and temporary huts used by villagers when having cultivation or hunting deer, wild pig, birds, and even sometimes clouded leopard.

Lunch will be served en route, dinner and overnight on bivouac/tent.

Day 08: SUNGAI BONGAN – SUNGAI BONGAN LEA (B,L,D)
Trekking path here is varied but tougher. We will be dealing with a lot of water about ½ - 1 meter deep and walking on rock at riverside. Afterwards, we will continue our journey by trekking up and down along the riverside, while sighting flora and fauna as well as the fascinating landscape along the trek. Before dark, we will set our campsite for dinner and overnight.
Day 09: SUNGAI BONGAN LEA – PIANG LO’ONG (B,L,D)

Kalimantan is the Indonesian part of the island of Borneo, the 3rd largest island in the world, covering 580,000 km². While some areas are highland, others are low land, flowed by tremendous rivers such as Kapuas River, Mahakam Driver, Barito River and others. Kalimantan is covered by one of the world’s largest stretches of tropical rainforest and is inhabited by sub-ethnics of Dayak people.

The word Kalimantan comes from the Indonesian Language, “Kali and Intan’ meaning river of diamond, an apt description to the abundant resources of the land. Kalimantan is divided into five (5) provinces, East Kalimantan, West Kalimantan, Central Kalimantan, North Kalimantan and South Kalimantan.

There is an approximately 12 million people living in the whole of Kalimantan. However, most regions remains sparsely populated with nearly half of the population in West Kalimantan.
